Christmas for Understaffed Bell Choir

The seasonal favorites “Adeste Fidelis”, “Infant Holy”, “Silent Night”, and “Jingle Bells” are each one-page, repeatable versions, and may be used as incidental music, or combined as a suite. The pieces will work well for younger, less experienced ringers, or for a more experienced choir looking for a quick learn. These arrangements are ideal when the bell choir has absent members and when little rehearsal time is available.

Christmas Bells Medley

Various/Arr. Bill Dugger

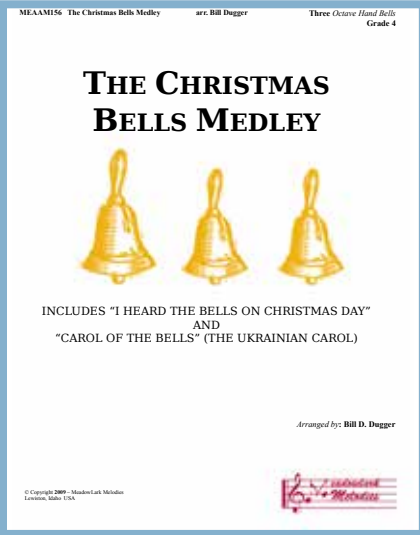

3 Octaves • Level 4

MMEAAM156

$3.75 $3.38

"I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" and "Carol of the Bells" are teamed up in this fresh setting of two Christmas songs about bells. "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" uses lots of accidentals in the harmony and melody, so it will take some work to figure out the logistics. Following that title is a dramatic key change and bridge leading to a very traditional arrangement of the Ukrainian carol, "Carol of the Bells." Straight-forward and cheerful, this festive 68-measure medley is fun to play and listen to.
