2022 Fall & Christmas

Hello and welcome to Hope Publishing!!

I am thrilled to present to you our latest releases from Hope Publishing. Over the past 18 months, with restrictions on large gatherings of people, we focused on music for small ensembles. Now that many restrictions have been lifted, we are excited to release many pieces for full choir (and a few small ensemble works) for fall 2022.

I hope that you find these resources helpful for your music ministries, school, and community programming. As always, if we can be of further assistance to your handbell program, please contact me.

Enjoy!

Begin to Ring series

compiled and arranged by

Martha Lynn Thompson and Frances L. Callahan

The Begin to Ring Series is an excellent resource for teaching beginning ringers. The pieces in each book are arranged in order of difficulty, starting with settings that include whole note accompaniment over the melody line and progressing to settings that use limited eighth notes and special techniques. All of the songs are based on familiar hymn tunes and are fairly short. These books start ringers off reading from the staff, so directors will need to explain basic musical concepts to ringers who don't read music.

Time to Ring series

compiled and arranged by Martha Lynn Thompson

Levels: 1 to 2

~~$46.95~~ $15.26

A valuable resource for any beginning choir! In the words of Martha Lynn, the "Time to Ring (series) grew out of a need for more material at the easier end of the musical spectrum (for beginning 2, 3, and 5 octave choirs)." The arrangements were written primarily as teaching pieces, but many of them could be used within the worship service or for performance purposes. Selections include well-known hymns, carols, folk tunes, and original compositions, as well as drills and exercises. An index of musical terms, tips on ringing handbells, and performance suggestions round out the contents of these highly useful compilations.
