Morning Has Broken

(arr. Sondra K. Tucker)

Singing bells with treble chords in quartal harmony evoke the feeling of dawn. The tune BUNESSAN is then presented with arpeggiated accompaniment, and some surprising harmonic twists lend new color to the traditional sound. Verses build into a final maes oso before the singing bells take over, then the piece ends as it began. This arrangement is a lovely offering for worship any time of year.

This creative and fun arrangement of the familiar spiritual begins with mallet clicks that set the tone for the piece. The melody appears over a rhythmically malletted bass line with a bit of a blues or jazzy feel. Lots of syncopations make this a learning opportunity for most Level 2 groups, but the end result will be a fun piece for concert or worship.
